

Mary Baker Eddy

Discoverer of the Scientific System of healing called Christian Science

Recognition of the importance of her contribution

2006 - The Atlantic - 100 Most Influential Americans; list includes Abraham Lincoln, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin . . . Mary Baker Eddy.

2002 - Religion and Ethics News Weekly - 25 most influential religious figures in the 20th Century; list includes Pope John Paul II, Dalai Lama, Martin Luther King, Jr., Mother Theresa . . . Mary Baker Eddy.

2000 - "Weekend Australian Magazine" - 100 Millennium Women "who have made a lasting impression on the World."

1995 - Mary Baker Eddy inducted into National Women's Hall of Fame.

1994 - National Women's Book Association - Science and Health - chosen as one of 75 books written by American women whose words have changed the world.

1976 - Life Magazine - Special Report - "Remarkable American Women from 1776-1976."

1959 - McCalls Magazine -34 most "Eminent Women" in history

1933 - Chicago Tribune - Nationwide poll of American Women - whom they regard as the 12 leaders of their sex in the last 100 years.

1908 - Académie française - Mary Baker Eddy was officially presented with a Diploma of Honor as an "Officier d'Académie" by the French government.

1903 - National Magazine rated MBE as "standing eighth in a list of twenty-two of the foremost living authors."

1903 - Ladies Home Journal - 2-pg. feature article - "Mary Baker Eddy—whose name is known to thousands all over the civilized world."